Access

Mark Salzinger is best known for his two monthly investment newsletters: The No-Load Fund Investor and The Investor's ETF Report. Each month, thousands of investors avidly read these publications for Mark's latest and best insights into timely investing. Mark took over The No-Load Fund Investor in late 2003 and expanded his influence in 2006 with The Investor's ETF Report, but his experience goes much further back. For about a decade, Mark served as executive editor of Louis Rukeyser's Wall Street and Louis Rukeyser's Mutual Funds, working closely with Mr. Rukeyser to provide expert, unbiased investment guidance to hundreds of thousands of investors.

Mark has access to mutual fund managers that few people have. He has personally interviewed hundreds of managers. Mark seeks out actively managed funds that he believes will outperform over a market cycle. To find them, he reviews past performance and volatility, examines current portfolio makeup, assesses consistency of their investment processes, reads published reports and other materials, and personally interviews portfolio managers and other fund-company personnel.

Expertise

Salzinger Sheaff Brock, specializes in one area: portfolio management using no-load mutual funds and low-cost ETFs. As a fee-only, independent investment firm, we serve only one master: our customers. We accept no remuneration of any kind from the investments we select. As a result, our success is tied directly to yours.

As a Salzinger Sheaff Brock client, you'll enjoy timely, expert investment advice from one of the most recognized mutual-fund/ETF advisors in the nation, along with excellent customer service and reporting. Along the way, you'll receive regular news on your investments, including periodic e-mailed commentary on the financial markets and quarterly performance reports on your account.

All in One

By combining no-load funds and low-expense ETF's within your portfolio, we believe we can offer higher risk-adjusted returns than would be possible from funds or ETF's alone. We also use funds and ETF's from any provider. Why limit yourself to one or two families of funds? We seek out the best of the best.

By combining no-load mutual funds and low-expense ETF's in our client portfolios, Salzinger Sheaff Brock can fill your portfolio with sufficient index and actively managed exposure to broad segments of the global investment market. At the same time, this practice provides us with the leeway to include targeted exposure to niche areas that appear extremely attractive and likely to outperform over time.

Portfolios

Two of our model portfolios focus on growth of capital, while four of our models constitute the Salzinger Sheaff Brock (SSB) Retirement Series.
